project experts
CARNEADES

CARNEADES: We are a strong team of international experienced consultants who actively shape the project management of our clients. Specialized in on- and offshore wind energy as well as grid connection projects, we support with our profound experience and “best practice” know-how.

We want you!

Procurement Manager (m/f/d)

– full-time, permanent –

YOUR TASKS

- In close cooperation with various project teams, you are responsible for the planning and implementation of purchasing activities, partly in EU tender procedures
- The targeted development of existing as well as the selection of new suppliers falls within your portfolio
- You conclude framework agreements independent according the company's requirements
- You identify opportunities and measures to increase efficiency and optimisation of the supplier base
- You create and consider orders and requirements according the supplier contracts, monitor delivery times/-dates and costs and implement risk assessments

YOUR PROFILE

- We are looking for a fellow campaigner with several years of relevant professional experience in technical purchasing, project purchasing or project management
- You have a successful degree in industrial engineering, economics (or similar)
- You have communicative, collaborative and strong negotiating skills
- We are pleased about a strategic mindset with empathy for technical and commercial issues
- Fluent German and English skills (written and spoken) as well as willingness to travel complete your profile

Please send your full application to recruitment@carneades.com

– Apply now –

Carneades Project Services GmbH
Überseering 4
D-22297 Hamburg

www.carneades.com